

light industrial development

The City is moving forward with Imagine Clearwater plans but in a cost-cutting decision has eliminated the planned renovations of the main library.

A code amendment allows Clearwater Police to more quickly remove derelict boats.

The City enacted an ordinance to limit a vessel's daily hours of occupancy (no more than 4) of certain non-leased public dock slips

Clearwater's first painted street mural is showcased in the Lake Belleview neighborhood.

New restaurants open in downtown Clearwater: Roxy's; Black Brick Tavern; Restaurant Totuma.

Council is supportive of a proposed new CRA in North Greenwood

Crestlake dog park is now open.

Holiday celebrations are underway in "The District" in downtown Clearwater

One of my "Paint Your Heart Out" teams (The Game Changers). This great group painted Miss Bertha's home on Long Street.

Maranda Douglas (Center) helped to coordinate efforts to paint the Peace, Love and Unity street mural in Lake Belleview - the corner of MLK and Woodlawn.

CONTACT INFORMATION

Kathleen Beckman - 727-580-0948

kathleen.beckman@myclearwater.com

kathleenbeckmanclearwatercitycouncil.com

City Council Office
600 Cleveland St., Suite 600
Clearwater, FL 33755

Thank you so much for subscribing to - and reading my newsletter. Have a great day!

Under the leadership of Alexandra Nixon, members of the Spring Branch Neighborhood Association dedicate a Free Little Library in the State Street Park: 1971 N. Betty Lane.

Thank you to Sylvia Imperatore owner of Sylvia's Waffles at 2152 Drew St. who offered a free breakfast to veterans on Veteran's Day.

New Year's Resolution: monthly newsletters and weekly updates to web-page. It's in writing; I'm committed. Happy New Year!